THE SENIOR CLASS of
CAROLINA TEACHERS COLLEGE
CULLOWHEE, NORTH CAROLINA

IN THIS, OUR SECOND YEAR OF WAR

. . . When everyone is called upon to make sacrifices and to put everything he has into the fight for our country and the principles for which it stands, we consider it a privilege to do a small part in the conservation of vital materials by reducing the size and changing the form of the CATAMOUNT.

Paper, copper used in printing plates, and photographic film, are vital war materials, therefore, our 1943 CATAMOUNT has fewer pages, fewer engravings, and no individual pictures of students.

The result is an informal CATAMOUNT in which we have sought to present to you pictures which you will always cherish. As you glance through this book in years to come, may it remind you of the good times, the friendships and the small sacrifices which we are happy to make in our march toward victory and freedom for the world.

WE WHO REMAIN TO GRADUATE PAY TRIBUTE

With deep appreciation for the sacrifices they are making; with humble gratitude for the credit they are reflecting on our Alma Mater; with an undying loyalty to the ideals which they are upholding; and with earnest prayer for their safe return, we, the members of the graduating class of 1943 of Western Carolina Teachers College, affectionately dedicate this War Issue of the Catamount to every man and woman from W.C.T.C. now in Military Service of our country.
